

November 2, 2011

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Release # 11-1-11

Woodland Christian Students Inducted to National Honor Society

Woodland, CA - October 26, 2011 - Woodland Christian School inducted thirteen more high school students into the prestigious National Honor Society (NHS). Nearly 20% of the student body at the high school are members of NHS.

The newest members are Chase Canevari, Macyn Carpenter, Anthony Castaneda, Samuel England, Devan Frederickson, Matthew Huitt, Garrett Kuhn, Robbie Miller, Justin Rodegerdts, Hannah Seiber, Molly Simpson, Jillyan Swasey, and Laurie Winchenbaugh. Justin Smith, the administrator for Woodland Christian School says, "This is one of the highest honors that can be bestowed on our students. These students should be proud of their achievement."

NHS was established in 1921 for the purpose of promoting for scholarship, service, leadership, and character development. In order to qualify for NHS, these students must demonstrate high academic achievement, personal integrity, leadership, and community service. Members of NHS have the opportunity to receive scholarships, awards, and leadership development.

Contact:

Judy Bailard

Woodland Christian School

jbailard@woodlandchristian.org

1616 West Street

Woodland, CA 95695

Office phone: 530-666-6615 (x 104)

Cell: 530-304-3421

###